

FORMER CHIEF PAGE MAKES SWEEPING CHARGES AGAINST REP. J. E. McDERMOTT

I. H. McMICHAELS PRESENTS TO HOUSE COMMITTEE CHARGES AGAINST ILLINOIS REPRESENTATIVE

Corroborates Allegations of M. M. Mulhall Against McDermott and Makes Additional Charges—Accused Man Sits Directly Opposite Witness and Watches His Former Confidential Man with A Steady Gaze.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—In a dramatic statement, I. H. McMichael, dismissed chief page of the house of representatives tonight presented to the house lobby investigating committee a sweeping charge of corruption against Representative James E. McDermott of Illinois, for years his sponsor. With intense earnest McMichael corroborated the allegations of M. M. Mulhall against McDermott and made additional charges at time shocking the committee and spectators with outbursts of profanity and slang.

In addition to the charges already made, McMichael swore that the Chicago representative told him that he received $7,500 out of a fund of $10,000 raised by the pawnbrokers of Washington to oppose a bill passed in the last congress regulating interest rates in the District of Columbia. In this connection McMichael told of a trip to New York when McDermott conferred with John McDermott of an association of Brewers and with George W. Horning, a local pawnbroker.

Offered Pay to Go to Jail.

Concluding his testimony McMichael testified that McDermott, since the Mulhall expose had endeavored to get him to—conceal McDermott's part in the transaction. "I met McDermott in the hall of this office building," said McMichael, "and he said 'My God, I'm a ruined man. What am I going to do? Do you suppose anybody will believe this old story?' I said to him 'I've worked hard for you for six years, harder than I ever worked for any man. I tried to elevate you and help you to a big position.' I told him I had done what I could for him. He said 'You've got nothing to lose, you don't live with your wife. I'm a congressman and got a wife and children. You say you wrote these letters unbeknownst to me. You will be committed for perjury and forgery, and I'll pay you $100 a month while you are there.' I said to him, 'Yes, you're willing to pay me $100 a month to go to jail for you, but you won't pay me wages you honestly owe me. I've got eleven dollars in my pocket. That's all I've got to show for six years work, but I won't do this for you.'"

Apparently struggling to control himself, McMichael told the committee of furnishing $75 to take Mulhall to Chicago to aid McDermott in the 1912 campaign.

"Where did you get that money?" asked Representative Garrett. "My mother had just died," said McMichael, "and I was executor for my mother's estate. The money was in a bank here to the credit of the estate and I gave Mulhall a check for it. I had to hustle to put it back. I never got any of it from McDermott."

McMichael told at length of making trips to various pawnbrokers in Washington to secure money either for McDermott or himself.

McDermott told me," he said, "that the pawnbrokers had raised $10,000 to fight the loan shark bill and later he told me he got $7,500 of it. When I asked him why he did not pay me what he owed me, he said 'My God, man, I had to pay it on debts and I still owe $9,000.'"

Through McMichael's recital Representative McDermott with his counsel sat immediately opposite the witness, chewing on a cigar and watching his erstwhile confidential man with a steady gaze. He expressed neither surprise or indignation at any point in the complicated story.

A story of how lobby work for the National association of Manufacturers was done from the inside of the house of representatives was related to the house investigating committee today by J. H. McMichael, former chief page of the house. Natty attired in a summery outfit of blue and white serge, McMichael blew clouds of cigarette smoke in the faces of the members of the committee from the witness chair, while he discoursed in vivid and picturesque language.

From the fall of 1909 until January 1912, McMichael said he was almost constantly on the payroll of Martin M. Mulhall, the National association of Manufacturers field agent at $50 a month while he was successively Democratic chief page of the house, attendant in the house press gallery and elevator conductor in the capitol.

He told of introducing Mulhall to Representative James E. McDermott of Illinois for whom he worked as a kind of a secretary and said McDermott worked with Mulhall and provided the latter with a room in the basement of the capitol where McDermott, McMichael and Mulhall conferred.

"Did you ever see any money pass between Mulhall and McDermott?" asked Chairman Garrett.

"I never seen any money actually pass between them," said the witness. "But I had reason to believe plenty of it was passing. I got mine open and above board."

"Why do you say you had reason to believe money was passing?"

The witness leaned forward and pounded on the committee table. "I'm not a fool," he declared vigorously. "When two guys like me and McDermott sit down to a table the two of us ain't got a penny and a third guy comes in and we have eats and drinks and get up with the dough. I know that dough don't grow on trees or on the table."

Held "Extended Sessions."

"How would you or McDermott know about the other having money at these conferences?" asked Chairman Garrett.

"We'd just smile at each other," he said.

"If Mulhall gave me two bills I'd hide the larger one and flash the smaller one, because every time I flashed anything advancing $75 to McDermott, he'd smile at me. He would go to the cashier and say to him, 'for God's sake don't let Mas see this.' We were both doing this."

He said that a hotel cashier named Regan had made affidavit to these transactions. Regan will appear later.

The witness said his employment by Mulhall was for the purpose of keeping Mulhall and James A. Emery, counsel for the N. A. M., advised as to the status of legislation in the house and in various committees and supplying documents to National association of Manufacturers officials.

Throughout McMichael's testimony Representative McDermott sat directly opposite the witness, steadily watching him closely and listening attentively to his story. Tonight McDermott told the committee $75 to send Mulhall to Chicago in 1912 to collect funds for McDermott's campaign. When McDermott returned to Washington after the campaign, he told McMichael the witness said that Mulhall "had not collected a nickel."

Would Sell Affidavits.

Attempts by Mulhall to dispose of a collection of affidavits which, McMichael said, showed that Burns detectives had committed perjury in a counterfeiting case, were detailed at length. After Mulhall had left the N. A. M., the witness said, these affidavits were offered to the corps of attorneys defending former Senator Lorimer in the senate for the purpose of discrediting the evidence of Burns detectives. Later he added, he and Mulhall tried to get McDermott to turn over the affidavits and other documents in Mulhall's possession including the correspondence recently made public, to a committee of the house to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and to Clarence Darrow, defending the McNamara brothers in the dynamiting cases on the Pacific coast. McMichael told of a conference early 1912 when he said he, McDermott and Mulhall drew up a resolution providing for the publication of the Mulhall correspondence and documents. He said that McDermott agreed to see Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Underwood and Republican Leader Mann and if they were favorably inclined to introduce the resolution in the house.

"Three days later," said the witness, "McDermott told Mulhall that he had seen the leaders and that they advised against the introduction of the resolution. McDermott lied about that. He hadn't seen the leaders."

"How do you know he lied," asked Chairman Garrett.

"Why he'd rather lie than eat," said McMichael.

Washington, Aug. 15.—For Illinois: Unsettled with local showers and cooler north portion Saturday; Sunday fair; moderate southwest winds Saturday and west Sunday.

NO HEAT RELIEF IN SIGHT FOR KANSAS

AVERAGE TEMPERATURE FOR LAST TEN DAYS IS 90.1 DEGREES

Leavenworth County Farmers Are Hauling Water From the Missouri River—Delaware River Is Dry for First Time in Twenty-seven Years.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 15.—The weather forecaster at Topeka said tonight there was no relief in sight for Kansas, from the hot weather. He said the average temperature, day and night, for the last ten days was 90.1 degrees, breaking the previous record of 89.8, recorded from July 26, 1906.

In Leavenworth county farmers today began hauling water from the Missouri river.

Shortage of water in the zinc mines in the Galena district has greatly curtailed the output and the price advanced today from $2 to $3 per ton.

The Delaware river, for the first time in twenty-seven years, is dry. Rains were reported this afternoon east and south of Guthrie, Okla., and at Cushing in that state. A half inch of rain fell at Oklahoma City.

With barely enough water remaining in the Port Scott, Kan., reservoir to last 60 days, half an inch of rain fell there tonight, accompanied by a wind which almost reached tornado proportions. A drop of twenty degrees in temperature followed the rain.

Three Injured in Windstorm.

Three persons were injured in a windstorm that accompanied a shower at White Church, Wyandotte county, Kan., tonight. Fred Love, 12 years old, who was plowing in a field when the storm struck, was blown 150 feet and severely bruised.

Storm Sweeps Manitoba.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 15.—The seriousness of the storm that early today swept the provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan was related by reports tonight. Crops were badly damaged in some sections.

Although many reports of injuries have been received, only two deaths have become known.

Chicago Sweltering.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Although the temperature was not as high as other times this summer, Chicago sweltered today because of great humidity. Great crowds sought relief on the lake front and in the parks. Several prostrated people were carried to hospitals, yet the highest temperature, recorded at 7 p. m., was 87.

Record Heat in Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 15.—With a temperature of 97 degrees at noon today and much higher maximum promised by the weather bureau, Nebraska again was the victim of record breaking heat. Every point in the state reported intense heat, and corn is wilting.

Heat Wave in St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 15.—Two drownings on a death from heat and numerous prostrations marked the heat wave in St. Paul today. The maximum temperature was 98. Temperatures ranging from 92 to 100 were recorded at many points in Minnesota, according to reports received here.

Plowing Out of Question.

Omaha, Aug. 15.—With the temperature higher than that of yesterday, reaching a maximum of 104, the southern half of Nebraska today suffered a continuation of the extreme heat which has existed almost continuously during the month of August. There has been no rain of consequence in this region for weeks. Pastures are drying up and fall plowing is out of the question. The government thermometer registered 102 degrees in Omaha.

ROBERT CADE RETURNS TO CHICAGO AND SURRENDERS

Has Been Sought By Police in Connection With the Murder of Bennie Holstein.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Robert Cade, for whom the police have been searching in connection with the death of Benjamin Holstein three weeks ago, returned to Chicago and gave himself up to the police today. The Holstein boy's body was found hidden under shrubbery, his arms tied behind him. Cade was arrested soon after the body was discovered but was released.

Three persons who had told the police they had seen a man resembling Cade near the scene of the murder declared this afternoon that he was not the man they had seen.

"I was working in the harvest fields of North Dakota, when I learned that I was wanted again in Chicago so I 'beat' my way back," said Cade when he appeared in a police station. "My girl went back on me since the police suspected me of the murder, so I came back to square myself."

He will be held and subjected to a further examination.

DEMOCRATIC UNION ENDORSES GAYNOR.

New York, Aug. 15.—A few hours after Mayor Gaynor had given out a statement criticizing District Attorney Whitman for siding against the mayor's curfew order at Thomas Healy's restaurant, the Democratic Union at Healy's tonight endorsed Mr. Gaynor for a renomination for mayor on an independent ticket.

EXTENDED DEBATE DELAYS PROGRESS

Senators Debate Details of Agricultural Schedule During the Entire Session

PLAN LONGER SESSIONS

Democratic Leaders Are Discussing Availability of Holding Longer Sessions to Hurry Action On Tariff Bill

MAY RECOMMEND NIGHT MEETINGS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Extended debate over details of the agricultural schedule delayed progress on the tariff bill again today in the senate. At the end of a session devoted to discussion of rate of duty on butter, hay and potatoes, the senate found it had passed on scarcely more than a dozen items.

Democratic leaders are canvassing the situation to decide as to the advisability of beginning longer sessions next week. Earlier sessions and meetings at night probably will be recommended. Efforts by Senator Page of Vermont to prevent the Democrats cutting the six cent duty on butter to 2 1/2 cents per pound were unsuccessful. Senator Sherman of Illinois criticized the Democrats for trying to reduce the price of butter while they refused to reduce the price of substitutes by taking off the heavy internal revenue tax. An attempt by Senator Gronna to put a duty of 15 cents a bushel on potatoes also was unsuccessful. The present bill would make them free with a countervailing duty.

Senator Bristow declared that to put potatoes on the free list while starch and other potato products were left dutiable "was one of the worst examples in the bill of the discrimination against farmers."

Senator Gronna opposed the committee amendment reducing the house duty of 20 cents per bushel on linseed to 15 cents. He said only the linseed oil "trust" owned by Standard Oil would benefit by the reduction and that the five cents would go into the Standard Oil coffers instead of the United States treasury without benefitting a single individual. The amendment was adopted.

The finance committee's amendment reducing the house rate on butter from 3 cents to 2 1/3 cents a pound was adopted.

Senator Poindexter led a fight to amend the bill by increasing the rate on hay from $2 to $3 a ton. The amendment was beaten.

Adjourn Until Monday.

After three hours of lively discussion between the administration officers and the currency "insurgents" the house Democratic caucus late today adjourned until Monday. The fight for amendments to the bill has been bitter.

Attacks on the bill began on the caucus soon after Representative Borland of Missouri entered upon a defense of the measure. He was frequently interrupted as was Majority Leader Underwood, who came to his support. Mr. Underwood, discussion the proposed controlling federal reserve board, insisted the twelve reserve districts, instead of being means of monopoly, would be a protection against the concentration of currency in New York.

Representative Wingo of Arkansas disclaiming any connections between his amendments and those proposed by others who are fighting for changes, said he proposed to protect the farmers annually held in the southern and western banks.

Representative Henry of Texas advocating amendments against interlocking directorates and for what he called "corn, tassel and cotton bale cash," asserted that the refunding of the two per cent circulation bonds by the three per cent non-circulating bonds would permit a "big grab and steal by big banks."

WIFE IS TOO BEAUTIFUL SO HUSBAND CUTS WITH RAZOR

Beautiful Italian Woman is Disfigured by Man Who Claims Her Beauty Has Been Cause of Constant Trouble.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Frances Datilla Raymond, described as the most beautiful girl in the Italian district here was disfigured by a razor in the hands of her husband Michael Raymond, a musician tonight.

Raymond who cut his wife about the face and arms declared that her beauty had been the cause of constant trouble between them and before attacking her, declared that was the reason for his act.

Raymond is being sought by the police.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 15.—Floyd Miller, Fort Dodge, Ia., under arrest charged with violation of the Mann white slave law, pleaded not guilty at a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Samuel Whaley today and the hearing was set for next Wednesday.

Alice and Kate Cooney, the girls Miller is alleged to have brought from Iowa to Benson, Minn., are held as witnesses.

WILSON'S MESSAGE IS DELIVERED TO HUERTA

DOCUMENT IS NOW IN POSSESSION OF MEXICAN GOVERNMENT

That the Government is Not Disposed To Summarily Reject it is Shown By the Fact That the Message Has Been Held by the Government Since Thursday Night With No Action Taken Concerning it.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 15.—President Wilson's message to President Huerta is now in the possession of the government, which may be expected to reject it or to return some answer shortly. Foreign minister Gamboa in the two conferences he has had with John Lind, President Wilson's special representative in Mexico came to the conclusion with the consent of President Huerta that the simplest way was to accept the document for President Huerta and his cabinet to study it.

It would seem now that since the message has been in the possession of the government since Thursday night and no action concerning it has yet been announced, the government is not disposed summarily to reject it. The government remains silent regarding the entire matter but Mr. Lind this afternoon with the consent of Senor Gamboa admitted for the first time to American newspaper correspondents that he had held conferences with the Mexican minister of foreign affairs adding that they had been cordial in character.

SANTA FE PASSENGER HITS AUTOMOBILE KILLING SIX

Cause of Accident Is Mystery as Trains Can Be Easily Seen Approaching Crossing Where Tragedy Occurred.

Carrollton, Mo., Aug. 15.—Six passengers in an automobile were killed when an Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe passenger train struck the machine at a crossing a mile east of here.

The dead: Carl Forbes and Mrs. Carl Forbes, Sacramento, Cal. Mrs. Mabel Warner, Brookfield, Mo. Mrs. William Roberts, Brookfield, Mo. H. S. Vandeventer, Brookfield, Mo. William Roberts.

The party was on a pleasure tour from here to Brunswick. The cause of the accident is a mystery. The train that struck the car was a fast mail. It is said either Mr. Vandeventer became confused or the mechanism of the car failed to work, leaving it stalled on the track. Trains approaching the crossing where the smashup took place can be seen for many rods in either direction.

Mr. Vandeventer, fatally injured, was taken to a local hospital, where he died.

To Have Returned Next Week.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 15.—Carl Forbes and his wife lived in this city, Forbes being chief dispatcher of the Western Pacific railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes left Sacramento for their old home in Brookfield, Mo., on July 23rd and were to have returned next week.

CORONER'S JURY EXONERATES SLAYER OF DAUGHTER'S ASSAILANT

Edward W. Dupey Who Killed Henry Gronimus of Chicago Is Exonerated by Verdict.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—An enraged father who took the law in his own hands and killed the man the courts had acquitted of the charge of attacking his 13 year old daughter, was exonerated today by a coroner's jury. The verdict said that Edward Dupey was "laboring under a great mental strain on account of injury done to his daughter by the deceased," when he shot and killed Henry Gronimus. Dupey was released from custody by the police. His two daughters, the one 11, the other 13, were the only witnesses before the coroner's jury. They testified that they had been attacked by Gronimus, who was a photographer in his studio. Dupey killed Gronimus after he had been freed on the charge of assaulting his elder daughter, Stella. After the shooting he disappeared but gave himself up to the police yesterday. State's Attorney Hoyne stated tonight that he would not accept the exoneration of the coroner's jury as final for Dupey and said he would present the case to the grand jury tomorrow, recommending that Dupey be held on a charge of murder.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER WAITS IN VAIN FOR VISIT FROM PARENTS

Father Does Not Care To Visit Son In Jail at This Time and Mother Is Prostrated.

Champaign, Ill., Aug. 15.—Gust Penman, slayer of Harold A. Shaw of Urbana waited in vain in jail, today for a visit from his father and mother. Robert Penman, the father, one of the richest farmers here, sent word that he did not care to visit his son at this time. The mother is prostrated.

The father, willing to spend a fortune to save his son, engaged several lawyers today.

Penman will be tried at the September term of the circuit court unless a continuance is obtained.

WILL NOT SUBMIT QUESTION TO COURTS

GLYNN CHECK MATES MOVEMENT OF SULZER FOR LEGAL SETTLEMENT

Lieutenant Governor Declares That He Will Perform Every Function of the Office of Governor Except Insofar as He Is Restrained by "Illegal Action" or by Physical Force.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Martin H. Glenn, check-mated tonight the movement of William Sulzer to invoke the arbitration of the courts on the question as to which of the two is the present lawful chief executive of the state of New York.

Replying to a formal proposal by the impeached executive to submit the issue to adjudication on an agreed statement of facts, Mr. Glynn tonight declared it was beyond his power "to barter away any of the functions attaching to the office in which I am placed by your impeachment."

"Any attempt on my part to do so," he said, "or to stipulate a method by which it might be done, would properly place me in the position you now occupy—that of being impeached for malfeasance in office."

Mr. Glynn declared further that he proposed to perform every function of the office of governor, "except insofar as I am restrained by your illegal action or by physical force."

The announcement of the lieutenant governor's policy came late tonight.

Mr. Glynn's letter was delivered to Mr. Sulzer at the executive mansion tonight. The doors of the executive suite at the capitol were securely locked to night while guards paced up and down within and without in the corridor. It was said that the guards would continue their vigilance throughout the night. The serious condition of Mrs. Sulzer tonight necessitated the recall of Dr. Robert Abrahams from New York. An afternoon bulletin, dictated by Dr. Abrahams after he had learned of the patient's condition over the telephone stated that she was "still in a precarious condition," with a temperature of 102 and pulse 118. Her condition tonight so alarmed those at her bedside that Dr. Abrahams was summoned from New York.

CASE AGAINST MORDAUNT DISMISSED BY ATTORNEY

Trial of Chicago Publisher Charged With Abducting Young Girls Ends on Request of State's Attorney.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—The trial of Frederick S. Mordaunt, president of the National Railway Publishing company and former publisher of the National Police Magazine, accused of abducting Josephine Seiwald, a 17-year-old department store clerk, ended today, when the case was dismissed by request of the state's attorney. Counsel for Mordaunt objected to the dismissal of the case and urged that his client be put on trial in order to exonerate himself.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 15.—Mayor Henry W. Kiel was chosen today president of an organization to obtain for St. Louis the permanent headquarters of the United States Good Roads association. That body will hold its annual meeting here November 10-15.

HONG KONG, Aug. 15.—Five thousand persons are reported to have been killed in the fighting that is going on in Canton and its environs between government and revolutionist troops.

GALESBURG, Ill., Aug. 15.—Miss Ortha Miller, a worker at the Galesburg kindergarten, was drowned in Highland lake here tonight, when she jumped from a row boat in the middle of the lake. Her body was recovered.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Chicago policemen obtained their first conviction today. John Kelefas and Antonio Salerno, arrested by Policewomen Clara Olson and Frances Wilsey for annoying women in a public park, were each fined $10 as "mashers." Two previous arrests by the women patrolmen had not resulted in convictions.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—As a result of troops having been out to suppress the rioting between the Orangemen and nationalists which had been pending for several days, Londonderry was quiet tonight.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 15.—H. A. (Bud) Renaud, aged 60, well known in sporting circles for many years, died here tonight of cirrhosis of the liver. Renaud was one of the backers of the Sullivan-Kilbane bare knuckle fight in Mississippi in 1889.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—A man giving the names of Washington Garfield and John King, arrested a few days ago for bathing in a public fountain and locked up, declared to the police today that he was Pat Crowe who figured in the Cudahy kidnaping a few years ago. The police believe his story.

PRINCIPALS MIX WITH CAMERA MEN

Maury Diggs and Parents Are Ambushed by Squad of Newspaper Photographers

START FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

All Principals in Case Are Arrested But Diggs Is Later Released—Government Rests Case and Defense Begins

DIGGS' FATHER LAST WITNESS OF DAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Maury I. Diggs got into fresh trouble tonight—and out of it. Leaving the federal building by a side entrance to shield his wife, his mother, his father and three aunts from public curiosity, he was ambushed by a squad of newspaper photographers. The women tried to run but the photographers kept snapping their cameras as they gave chase. Somebody punched a photographer in the face and in an instant there was a free-for-all fight. Drew Caminetti was swept in the vortex. A squad of police took the principals to the nearest station. As the upshot of the affair, Diggs was released and a friend of his was charged with battery.

In the more serious troubles that just now engrosses the attention of Diggs, the government rested at noon and the defense took up the burden of proving that he and F. Drew Caminetti did not transport Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris from Sacramento to Reno for immoral purposes, in violation of the Mann act.

Counsel for the defense announced tonight that Mrs. Diggs and Mrs. Caminetti, the two wives, would take the stand for their husbands and that Diggs would testify in his own behalf. With these three witnesses the defense plans to close its case not later than Wednesday.

Did Not Intend to Leave State.

So far as the opening statement of Attorney Devlin for the defense indicated, no attempt would be made to show that the two girls did not accompany the two young married men to Reno, that Diggs did not buy the tickets and Caminetti drew the money or that their relations did not fall within the language of the statute.

"We shall show," said Attorney Devlin to the jury, "that it was the intention of the defendants only to leave Sacramento for a short time to avoid notoriety; that they had intended to go to some place within the state; that it never was their intention to leave the state but simply to get out of Sacramento; that they missed a train for Los Angeles and took the next one which went to Reno."

"Two weeks previously Diggs had said he was going to Los Angeles. We will show that Miss Warrington said she was going too and that he could not leave her in Sacramento."

Other testimony which the defense promised to introduce would go to show that the men left Sacramento because they believed a scandal would soon explode and involve them in prosecutions. The wives and mothers of the two defendants appeared in court and heard some unpleasant testimony. While Mrs. Diggs held her daughter Evelyn, 4 years old, on her knees, she heard M. H. Diepenbrock testify to the character of her husband as a tenant.

"The janitor of my office building," he testified, "and the policeman on the beat, told me that Diggs was entertaining young girls in his office. I cautioned him and told him that I could not have him make an assignation house out of my building." The purpose of this testimony was to show that Diggs had cause for desire to flee. Corroborative testimony was given by P. J. O'Brien, a saloonkeeper; D. T. Leitch, a chauffeur, and G. A. Putnam, a Sacramento newspaper man. The latter testified that he had formally known Marsha Warrington and told her to shake Diggs; that he wasn't a good and that it would ruin her character to have anything to do with him.

"She said, 'I will never go out with him anymore, believe me.'"

The last witness was Diggs' father, I. P. Diggs, a contractor and builder of Berkeley. He told a story of the town talk about his son and the efforts he made to induce him to mend his ways.

"I told him I didn't want the family broken up and that I was going to prosecute Caminetti, Miss Warrington, Miss Norris and himself if the thing didn't end right away."

The morning session was given over to the cross-examination of Lola Norris which left her narrative unshaken and the testimony of Nellie Barton, a friend of Marsha Warrington, with which the government rested.

Miss Barton related her part in the episode which resulted in the collateral indictment charging Diggs and his attorney, Charles S. Harris of Sacramento, with conspiracy to suborn perjury. There will be no sessions of the court in the case tomorrow or Monday.

REJECTED SUITOR OF MURDERED WOMAN IS HELD TO GRAND JURY

Henry Thornton Is Held for Murder of Mrs. Iva Chevalier and Her Twelve-Year-Old Daughter.

Kirkville, Mo., Aug. 15.—Henry Thornton, rejected suitor of Mrs. Iva Chevalier, was bound over to the grand jury without bail following his preliminary hearing here today on a charge of murdering the woman and her 12-year-old daughter, Ella. Their bodies, with the skulls crushed with the same instrument were found in a bed several weeks ago. In the testimony today it was brought out that Thornton, after being spurned by Mrs. Chevalier, declared he was not going to be made a fool of. Police testified that blood-hounds given the scent from a bloody stock, supposed to have been used in the murder, twice took a trail which ended at Thornton's lodging house.

Thornton and his land lady declared the bloodstains were due to frequent nose bleeds he suffered.

RACE IS INTERRUPTED BY RESCUE OF DROWNING CHILD

Michael McDermott Leaps From Leading Yacht to Save Boy—Judges Will Give Yacht Another Chance.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—The second race here for the Sir Thomas Lipton trophy for small sloop yachts was interrupted today, when Michael McDermott, national breast stroke champion, leaped from the Susan II, the leading yacht to the rescue of a drowning child. McDermott saved the boy, but the Susan II, was out of the race.

The judges of the race voted congratulations to McDermott and will allow the Susan II, a chance to sail a special race with the winner of the heat.

INCESSANT RIOTING MARKS DAY IN GARMENT WORKERS STRIKE

Scores of Striking Men and Girls, Strike Breakers and Private Detectives Are Arrested.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 15.—The third day of the local garment makers' strike was characterized by incessant rioting. Before dark more than a score of arrests had been made. Striking men and girls, strike-breakers, cloak manufacturers and private detectives were included among the arrested ones. With one exception only minor charges, such as peace disturbance and destruction of property, were placed against those arrested. The exception missed being a murder case only by a freak of nature. A negro was shot in the center of the forehead and the bullet entered the flesh and went almost half way around his head before coming out.

MANICU 1ST FOUND DEAD UNDER MYSTERIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES

Indications Are That Girl Died of Poisoning and an Investigation Will Be Made.

Norwood, Mass., Aug. 15.—Miss Marie B. Larmie an attractive manicurist was found dead in her apartment today under circumstances so mysterious that county and town officials immediately took up an investigation. Indications are that Miss Larmie died of poisoning and the stomach and viscera were sent to Prof. Whitney of Harvard for chemical analysis.

LOS ANGELES GIRL'S STORY IMPLICATES MAN OF WEALTH

Two Arrests Have Been Made as Result of Carol Mason's Admissions—More Arrests Promised.

Los Angeles, Aug. 15.—Two arrests with more promised, resulted from the finding by the police late today of Carol Mason, a 15-year-old girl, who had been missing two weeks. Henry W. Haskamp, formerly of Prince Rupert, B. C., now a real estate dealer here, and Robert Burton, a young salesman, were arrested on suspicion, pending the filing of charges of delinquency. Haskamp is a man of great wealth.

The girl said she had left home willingly. She made admissions implicating several men, however, according to the police, and told of an operation performed by a physician whom detectives are seeking.

NORWOOD PARK SALOON-KEEPERS PAY FOR KEEPING OPEN SUNDAYS

Make Affidavits That They Paid Justice of Peace Hennings $3 Each Per Sunday.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Three dollars each per Sunday was the price charged saloon keepers for keeping open Sundays in the dry suburb of Norwood, according to ten affidavits filed with county Judge Owens today. The affidavits charged Justice of Peace Noah Hennings with having made weekly collections.

The $3 was paid without complaint, said the affidavits, and when the price was raised to $4 and then $5, it was still paid.

The affidavits signed by Norwood Park saloonkeepers said that Hennings raised the price to $10 and they complained to Sheriff Zimmer. Justice Hennings has been summoned to appear before Judge Owens next Tuesday.

AGED GENERAL RECEIVES $100,000.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 15.—With an announcement today that he was the beneficiary to the amount of $100,000 from the will of Mrs. Julia L. Butterfield of York City, General Wm. Leduc, aged 90, of Hastings, Minn., ascends from what practically was poverty to a position of wealth. The late General Daniel Butterfield and General Leduc were the closest of friends. General Leduc took a prominent part in the civil war.

ADDRESSES MASS MEETING.
Washington, Aug. 15.—Miss Jane Addams of Chicago tonight addressed a mass meeting marking the conclusion of a conference here of the National Congress of Women Voters, representing about 4,000,000 women voters in several western states.

Monarchs in Mourning.
Periods of court mourning are apt to be regarded with something akin to alarm by people in the official social world, for court mourning means to them submission to published rules and regulations, from which there is no appeal.

In most eastern capitals white garments are the usual sign of mourning, and purple is frequently in Europe given preference to black. Mourning, of course, is strictly enforced in the court of St. James; also in that at Madrid and in the Austrian court. At the latter, by the way, etiquette is exaggerated to an extreme.

At the court of Berlin, where ceremony is regarded as the language of power, the blackest of mourning is worn during the day, but not in the evening. The empress objects to black evening frocks and insists on her ladies wearing white dresses trimmed with black.

In Denmark also black is not allowed, but the wives of high officials and of noblemen are permitted to wear a high peaked headdress when in mourning.—Pearson's Weekly.

Montenegro's Stones.

Montenegro has, after all, some reason to be grateful for its stones. "It is in these stones," writes William Miller, "that the Black mountain has found its best fortifications—for artificial forts it has none—and it was not till the time of the present prince (now King Nicholas) that the Napoleonic idea of making a road across the country was carried out. Even now it is not by any means certain that this improved means of communication will not be a source of danger in the future."

Napoleon in the early years of the nineteenth century offered to construct a roadway across the principality at his own expense, but his overtures were summarily rejected. He then threatened to lay waste the country with fire and sword till his name became Monte Rosso ("the red mountain") instead of Montenegro. The threat, however, was never carried out.—London Chronicle.

Sightseeing.
The visitor from Wyoming was seeing New York under the guidance of his friend Washington Square.

"I'd like to see the Bronx zoo," he said. "I have read about it for years. How do we get to it?"

"Search me," said Mr. Square. "I've never been there."

"And you have lived in New York all your life? That's humorous."

Later the New Yorker confided to his friend that one of his fondest ambitions was to see Yellowstone park. "It must be glorious out there among all those mountains and geysers and lakes," he said. "You know all about it, of course, coming from Wyoming as you do."

"To tell the truth," replied the westerner, "that's a place where I have never been."—Newark News.

Mrs. D. D. Robinson and daughter Sidney of the Prentice neighborhood were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle Is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, always all fear, banishes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, free in body and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and a place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women, hence Mother's Friend is really one of the greatest blessings that could be devised.

This splendid and certain remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and is sure to prove of inestimable value, not only upon the mother, but upon the health and future of the child. Write to Bradford Regulator Co., 132 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

ECZEMA ITCHED TERRIBLY ON HANDS

White Little Spots. Scratching
Made Them Worse. Cuticura
Soap and Ointment Cured.

1261 Marion Place, Chicago, Ill.—"I had eczema for four or five years. One day I came into the house and saw some white little spots coming out on my hands. A week later I saw that the spots began opening and in their places came deep holes. Later it took the form of some red little spots. Those spots itched me terribly and every night when I was asleep I always used to scratch and make the spots worse and made some new spots. The trouble caused loss of sleep. My hands cost my father a fortune.

"I used remedies for three and one-half years but they made me worse. I used —, which helped a little bit, but in a day or two it got worse also. Later on I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment two times a day, in the morning and at night before going to sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment afforded relief in one or two weeks, and it only took two months before the cure was complete." (Signed) Clement Levinson, Nov. 22, 1912.

Although the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are most successful in the treatment of affections of the skin, scalp, hair and hands, they are also most valuable for everyday use in the toilet, bath and nursery, because they promote and maintain the health of the skin and hair from infancy to age. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card to Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Chicago & Alton road is receiving 2,000 new box cars numbered consecutively from 37,000 to 38,999 and has issued orders to all agents to try as far as possible to keep the new rolling stock on the company's own rails so as to give patrons the best service possible.

While D. C. Diltz, agent of the Alton was in Denver, he bought an interesting souvenir of the conclave. It is of gun metal with a new nickel on the center and around the border a suitable inscription regarding the conclave. The article is in the shape of a Maltese cross.

A special train went through yesterday morning on the C. B. & Q., bearing the superintendent, division superintendent, roadmaster and other officials. They were on a tour of inspection and made a short stay in this place.

Charles Hopper, who was hurt recently is still a very sick man.

Freight business is picking up on the C. B. & Q. system and new crews are being added to the force.

The C. B. & Q. road is adorning and generally fixing up the offices at Beardstown, expending some $8,000 on the work.

C. P. Wilson, paymaster on the C. B. & Q. road, was in the city yesterday distributing compensation for services. He went to Springfield on No. 35.

Passenger Engineer Davison of the C. P. & St. road, enjoyed a visit yesterday from his son, John, of Springfield.

Freight business on the Wabash is looking up and the force at the depot are kept busy as bees handling the trade.

Today W. L. Simpson, freight agent, and W. A. Evans, passenger agent of the Wabash are to go to Springfield today to attend a meeting in the interest of safety on the road. This is a regular feature of the management of the road and at stated intervals various employees are required to visit headquarters and discuss ways and means for preventing and lessening accidents on the road.

FINDS PLANT WORTH FORTUNE.

Guided by the education in botany given him by his grandmother, who gained her knowledge of herbs and plants from the Kickapoo Indians years ago, Robert L. Taylor, of Pana discovered a plant growing in that vicinity which it is claimed is worth a fortune, providing he can gather a sufficient amount. The plant is called the Panax Quinquefolius, and is found in the foothills of Beck's creek. Since Taylor made his sensational discovery hundreds of persons have flocked to the foothills in search of the weed. A pharmacy has offered to buy the plants at $8 a pound and many are taking advantage of the opportunity to increase their bank roll. The plant will be exported to China, where it is believed by the natives to be a cure for all diseases. It is proposed to have a botanist from the state university come to Pana and search for other plants of value to science and industry which are thought to grow in that vicinity.

A BROADWAY FOR CHICAGO.

Evanston Avenue Redistricted Along With 566 Others.

After long years without a street named after New York's famous thoroughfare, Chicago is at last to have a Broadway. Evanston avenue, one of the longest in the city, has been rechristened Broadway and officially loses its old name.

Five hundred and sixty-six other new street names become effective at the same time, eliminating 540 duplications. More than 200 historical names are applied in place of the old meaningless appellations.

PIRATES AND DODGERS BATTLE FOURTEEN INNINGS TO A TIE

Pittsburgh Ties Score in Ninth and Darkness Ends Fight With Score
3 to 3.

Brooklyn, Aug. 15.—Pittsburgh's farewell appearance for the season here today produced a 14 inning tie game with Brooklyn, darkness ending hostilities with the score 3 to 3. After the Pirates tied the game in the ninth both managers ordered their pitchers to walk dangerous batters several times in the pinches. Men were left on bases in each of the last five innings, Pittsburgh having the bases full in the fourteenth.

The locals jumped into the lead scoring two runs in the first inning and added another in the fourth. Pittsburgh got two runs in the sixth. Wagner tied the game in the ninth on a base on balls, J. Miller's out and Wilson's single.

FROM DR. HARKER.

Andre & Andre have received from Dr. J. R. Harker, now in England, a postal card, stating that the writer had been to Scotland investigating the land of Burns & Scott and to the lake district of England and later in London had attended church at Wesley chapel, where the great founder of Methodism used to preach and in the evening at Westminster Abbey and the next day had been entertained by a friend who was a member of the house of Commons. He sent also a shrewd advertisement of a relative who is a shoe dealer. It was a little folder on the cover of which were the words, "Inside you will see why Harker lost a customer," and opening the folder are the words, "He died."

FUNERAL NOTICE.

WOMAN COULD NOT WALK

She Was So Ill—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pentwater, Mich.—"A year ago I was very weak and the doctor said I had a serious displacement. I had backache and bearing down pains so bad that I could not sit in a chair or walk across the floor and I was in severe pain all the time. I felt discouraged as I had taken everything I could think of and was no better. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am strong and healthy."—Mrs. ALICE DARLING, R.F.D. No. 2, Box 77, Pentwater, Mich.

Read What Another Woman says:

Peoria, Ill.—"I had such backaches that I could hardly stand on my feet. I would feel like crying out lots of times, and had such a heavy feeling in my right side. I had such terrible dull headaches every day and they would make me feel so drowsy and sleepy all the time, yet I could not sleep at night.

"After I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a week I began to improve. My backache was less and that heavy feeling in my side went away. I continued to take the Compound and am cured.

"You may publish this if you wish."—Miss CLARA L. GAUWITZ, R.R. No. 4, Box 62, Peoria, Ill.

Such letters prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for women's ills. Why don't you try it?

CUBS WIN AN EASY GAME FROM BOSTON

CAPTURE LAST OF BRAVE SERIES BY 14 TO 6 SCORE.

Lavender Pitches Good Game, Allowing but Five Hits—He Is Relieved by Cheney in the Eighth, However, on Account of Wildness.

Boston, Aug. 15.—Chicago batted three Boston pitchers hard today, easily winning their last game here this season 14 to 6. Lavender held Boston to five hits, but his wildness caused him to be relieved in the eighth by Cheney.

BROWNS ARE UNABLE TO HIT BOSTON SLABMEN AND LOSE

Shotton is Only Player to Hit Safely and Red Sox Win Fast Game 2 to 1.

St. Louis, Aug. 15.—Mosely and Hall were almost invincible this afternoon while Wellman was hit opportunely, Boston making it two straight from St. Louis, score 2 to 1.
Shotton was the only player who could hit the visiting pitchers getting a single off each and scoring the locals lone run.

WALTER JOHNSON WINS HIS TWELFTH CONSECUTIVE VICTORY

Washington's Star Pitcher Makes Baseball History by Defeating Detroit 9 to 7.

Detroit, Aug. 15.—Walter Johnson made baseball history when his team defeated Detroit 9 to 7 today. It was his twelfth consecutive victory this season's record in the major leagues. Early in the season he won eleven games before being beaten. Today was the fifth time he opposed Detroit this year being victor each time. With his club holding a six run lead when the seventh inning was completed Snodgrass Griffith reached Johnson with Gallia. Detroit made five runs off him, Harper and Hughes in the ninth.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES

Charley Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, celebrated his 55th birthday yesterday. The Old Roman was born in the old ninth ward Chicago, August 15, 1858. His father represented that ward in the common council for years, and was known to all Chicago as "onest John." Charles A. received his first knowledge of baseball upon Chicago's west side prairies, and after he left college at St. Mary's, Kansas, his first professional game was with a team at Dubuque, Iowa, in 1878. In 1882 he joined the St. Louis Browns, was made manager in 1883, and while with St. Louis he captured four championships, two of them for the world's emblem. He afterwards managed a team in St. Paul, and in 1892-1895 he was manager of the Cincinnati Reds, going to St. Paul and then to Chicago in 1890, when he cast his lot with the American league. When Comiskey played the game he was king of first basemen, and it was he who first played off the bag when it was not occupied by a runner. Capt. Anson followed him and then Joe Start on down the line until now his style of guarding the position is the only correct one.

Joe Tinker and Garry Herrmann are having one of those kilkenny affairs which are so common in Redland between managers and President August. Joe, according to newspaper reports, has had his boss on the toasting pan for several days for his interference in the management of the team. He says the condition of his team at present is bad, and that if the "butting in" does not cease, it is going to be much worse. Joe is about ready to quit, but Garry believes he will change his mind.

Young Mr. Russell is beginning to show the effects of the "edwalsing" he was given in the early part of the season. His role at that time when he was chucked into the game almost daily is now beginning to bear fruit, as Texas these days plainly shows he is not able to go through the nine rounds without taking a healthy drubbing.

Husk Chance must be using a hypnotic influence over Jack Knight. The come-back is playing ball for him, something Kid Elberfeld, Jim McQuire, Jimmie McAlister and Connie Mack failed to accomplish with him.

George Stovall, in answer to an appeal to Ban Johnson complaining about Silk O'Loughlin's insulting language to Roy Mitchell has received official notice that his star pitcher has been indefinitely "set on the ground" for his part in the heated exchange of billingsgate.

Louis Flene, who was unconditionally released by Kansas City, has joined Cantillon's old man's retreat, and but for some slow fielding behind him would have had a shutout against Columbus in his first game with the Millers.

Another $10,000 beauty has been purchased in the American association, the Braves giving up that sum in discarded players to St. Paul in exchange for Walter Rehg. Manager Friel refused a cash offer and demanded certain players to help build up his team.

Cy Morgan did not have to tarry long with the minors. Cincinnati has purchased his release from Kansas City, and he will report to the team immediately. It pays to ditch the coffin tacks and the gas wagons.

GIANTS WIN THREE STRAIGHT GAMES FROM ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

Old Cincinnati Battery of Fromme and McLean Proves Winner, New York Taking Game 6 to 1.

New York, Aug. 15.—New York made it three straight over St. Louis today winning the last home game of the season with St. Louis by a score of 6 to 1.

Fromme and McLean, the old Cincinnati battery, worked their first full game together in New York uniforms and the Cardinals made only four hits off Fromme. Wingo's home run into the grand stand in the third inning saved St. Louis from a shutout.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recom-

CROP CONDITIONS INFLUENCE STOCKS

STOCK MARKET IS HESITATING AND STAGNANT IN EARLY HOURS.

No Movements of Importance During
Early Period Aside From Persistent Pressure Upon Steel, Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific—Lowest
Prices Are Made in Last Hour.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Aug. 15.—Crop conditions were again a powerful influence in the stock market today, unfavorable advices received resulted in recession of 1 to 2 points. According to reliable, though unofficial data, the long sustained drought in the southwestern corn belt has caused a further loss of not less than 150, 000,000 bushels of corn since the publication of the August 1 figures.
Estimates compiled on the produce exchange now points to the smallest corn yield since 1904 with fears of further deterioration. Corn options mounted to new high records in all the leading markets and other cereals also rose sharply.

The stock was hesitating and stagnant in the early hours. There were no movements of importance during the early period, aside from persistent pressure upon steel, Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific. Lowest prices were made in the last hour when the only real animation of the day was witnessed.

Steel's weakness was made the occasion of rumors to the effect that independent manufacturers contemplate a general reduction of prices in the hope of stimulating new business so far as this had to do with some of the steel corporations most formidable rivals the rumors were denied. Denial was also given to reports of some shading of copper prices from the 16 cent level.

Agricultural News Valuable To Farmers

FARM CONDITIONS IN WILL COUNTY

ARTICLE BY F. C. GRANNIS, COUNTY ADVISER OF WILL COUNTY.

Soil Fertility Expert Asserts that for Every Bushel of Corn Hauled to the Elevator Nearly Seventeen Cents Worth of Soil is Sold—Clover a Necessity.

(By F. C. Grannis, County Adviser for Will County.)

The agriculture of a county is its "main spring." All business interests of a county or of a nation depend primarily on its agriculture. The fact is, that if Will county was not so favored as to soil and climate, Joliet would not be the bustling city that it is today and we must further consider that if the soils of our county are depleted of their fertility as rapidly in the future as they have been during the last ten years, Joliet's business interests will decline and Joliet, instead of advancing, will be retarded in its growth.

In a series of interesting articles recently published, the Chicago Record-Herald endeavors to show that the present high cost of living is due not so much to the merchant or to the middle man as to the fact that

F. C. GRANNIS

County Adviser for Will County. Mr. Grannis graduated from the University of Illinois in 1910, was assistant in soil fertility at the university for the year 1910-11; professor of agriculture and chemistry at McKendree college, Lebanon, Ill., 1911-12; extension lecturer in soils, Ames, Iowa, 1912, and has been recently elected agricultural adviser in Will county, Joliet, Illinois.

that farmer himself has been overworking the soil. We are forced to admit that in spite of the advanced teaching along agricultural lines, in spite of the amount of drainage completed, in spite of the perfection of modern farm machinery, our soils are being badly mistreated, and the beginning to retaliate with lower and lower yields.

At the present high price of land, we cannot afford to be satisfied with any such yields of grain and of hay as we are now producing. Farming skillfully managed is a highly profitable business, but a farm managed in the average way, yields only a bare living to its manager, and is rapidly decreasing in fertility and in value as farm land.

I am heartily in sympathy with the farmer who insists upon having the latest farm machinery, the most efficient buildings and the most modern conveniences in the home; the farmer who has a fine touring car, who sends his children to college and who in every way is more prosperous and lives better than the average city dweller. I have no sympathy with the man who deliberately hauls his land to town and sells it at the elevator.

Grain System Ruinous. We are endowed by nature with land that is fitted for growing big crops of corn. Corn has always been our staple crop and our big money crop. Prices of grain have risen so high that many of us have yielded to temptation and have gone into corn growing almost exclusively. Worse still, instead of feeding what grain we grow, we haul it to town and receive cash for it. In every bushel of corn we sell, we are actually selling nearly seventeen cents worth of soil.

Every hundred bushels of corn takes with it to the elevator $16.00 worth of fertility. The fact that we have been carrying on this "robbing" process for so long indicates that our soils were bountifully supplied with plant food by nature. We must remember that this heritage of plant food was given us as a loan and as with all loans it must be returned with interest. Many farmers have not only failed to keep up the interest on the plant food borrowed from the soil, but they are rapidly spending the principal by the ruinous corn and oats rotation.

Clover a Necessity. We must grow clover, and more of it, if we hope to maintain soil fertility, or to build up the productive power of the soil. Clover is a soil "healer." It secures nitrogen from the vast supply in the air and returns it to the soil, provided the hay crop is turned under or that the manure made from it is carefully saved and returned to the land.

The old idea that we may grow and remove the hay crop and the seed crop and still benefit the soil is very erroneous. In fact, if the clover crop, hay and seed is removed the soil is impoverished and not improved.

Alfalfa Successfully Grown. There are a number of successful fields of alfalfa in Will county. With proper care and treatment this "wonder crop" can be grown on any well drained, porous soil in the state. When we realize the true value of the alfalfa crop it will be grown on every farm in the county. Like clover, it is a soil healer, but it is richer in food value and is even better as a restorer of soil fertility than the clover crop. There is no "trick" about growing alfalfa, but it demands certain soil treatment and will almost surely be a failure without it.

Limé is a Necessity. The growing of clover and alfalfa emphasizes more clearly than ever the distinct need of limé in our soils. The ash of the alfalfa plant is thirty per cent limé, showing that alfalfa actually feeds upon this material. Will county is a "liméstone county" and through the assistance we hope to provide a cheap supply of liméstone to our farmers.

Boost the Association. The County Soil and Crop association is a great thing for Will county and farmers here and other counties will be working for the best interests of all citizens their own included, if they heartily support their county associations.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES.

Find the Right Man.

(From Tribune Farmer, New York.) Many counties in the middle west states have already employed county demonstrators or advisors, and many more are preparing to employ men for that position. The movement is receiving the support of practically every agricultural agency—national state and local—and is progressing with exceeding rapidity.

The problem of finding men fitted for and adapted to the work is truly the great problem. The matter of finance is trivial compared with it. A strong man will earn and save for the county many times the amount of his salary. A man unadapted to the work will give the movement a setback from which it will require years to recover.

Studying Market Conditions. An investigation is now under way by the new office of markets recently established, to study the distribution and transportation of produce and obtain data on the prices paid by different men who handle it before it reaches the consumer. The feasibility of a market news service dealing with perishable products will also be determined with a view to making it useful to farmers and truck gardeners. Several other specialists are studying co-operative organizations of producers and consumers to determine the most practical methods of handling these local organizations—Orange Judd Farmer, Chicago.

Lunch for Working Animals.

The farmer who leaves his team for an hour or so while he goes to the house to rest and refresh himself, should remember that the animals which have labored harder than ing an imposing monument, such as would have been erected over the grave of such a man in Europe or our own country, but it was not there. We returned to the village and had our supper, which was enjoyed with a relish of hunger caused by our long walk and then opened up the camp beds, placed the clean bedclothes on them which had been brought along, saw that the ladies were securely stowed away for the night and then went to our own quarters and were soon asleep and dreaming of what we had been during the day.

The Return. We were up betimes next morning for we wanted to make the trip back in less time in order to take the afternoon train for this place and as it was cooler our men got back in three and a half hours, which was more than an hour better than the time made the before going out. On our way to the train we passed the dead body of a beggar who had evidently fallen in the road and no one seemed to care for the remains, though the place contains some 75,000 inhabitants and how long the corpse remained there I am unable to state. The ride of twenty miles

SECOND ARTICLE ON SOIL FERTILITY

RELATION OF CATTLE FEEDING TO UPBUILDING OF THE LAND.

Result of Experiment With Fields Treated With Yard Manure, Stable or Fresh Manure and With Stable Manure Treated With Acid Phosphate.

A brief abstract of an address by Charles E. Thorne, Director of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, to the Cattle Feeders' Convention, University of Illinois:

In 1897 we started a second series of experiments in which manure was treated with phosphorus in order to reinforce it in this element. In these experiments the manure produced by fattening steers has been treated with two carriers of phosphorus, the common acid phosphate of the fertilizer trade and the raw rock from which this acid phosphate is made by treating with approximately an equal weight of sulphuric acid. The manure has then been divided, one-half of it being applied directly to the field, while the other half has been exposed in the open barnyard for three or four winter months before going to the field.

Both kinds of manure have been used at the rate of 8 tons per acre and plowed under for corn in a 3-year rotation of corn, wheat and clover, each crop being grown every season. All the land has been limed in the test during the last nine years, and the outcome for this period is given in the second division of the table. The table shows that, when the land has had no treatment except lime, the yield has been practically the same as the land limed but otherwise untreated in the experiment first described. Where yard manure has been used alone on limed land, the net yield, after deducting the cost of liming, has averaged practically $7.00 per acre, or to $2.93 per bushel of manure. When stable or fresh manure has been used, the increase has amounted to $9.75 per acre, or $3.93 for each ton of manure. When the stall manure has been reinforced with floats or with acid phosphate the yields have amounted to over $12.00 per acre, or to nearly $5.00 for each ton of manure, this being the net yield after deducting all cost of treatment. Comparing the two sections of this table (the first section was given in a previous article) it will be seen that the total and net yields on this manured land have been much greater than those produced by chemicals or where untreated yard manure was used.

Summary of experiments with fertilizers and manure at Ohio experiment station, section II:

he, also need refreshment. A lunch in a fence corner, from a lunch box which may be hung from the fence, is easily given and will be thankfully received in actions if not in words, from the tired team. The time spent is not lost, but is more than regained in the alacrity with which the animals go back to work.

If every farmer should adopt this practice through the planting and harvest season, the working stock might be kept without loss of condition, and would not need feeding up again to regain the flesh they have been permitted to lose.

was accomplished on the accommodation train in about two hours and we found ourselves in Tsinning, the abode of our esteemed friend and brother, Charley Eames, or more properly speaking, Rev. Charles M. Eames, son of the late Charles M. Eames of Jacksonville, so highly respected and valued by all who knew him. Once proprietor and publisher of the Journal and a successful merchant also. His father was Timothy D. Eames, one of the men who helped make Jacksonville what it is, a man of sterling integrity and one universally respected. Surely Charley has had enough good blood to make him good and he has honored his friends and ancestors. He is a classmate, 1904, Illinois college, of Mr. Ewert, and a life long friend of the writer.

Dr. Eames' Work. Mr. Eames is connected with the work of the Presbyterian Foreign Missionary Society of the United States. The plant in this city consists of a boys' high school and girls' high school, the former with 40 pupils and the latter with 64; boys primary schools, with 125 pupils, girls' primary schools, with 45 pupils; a woman's Bible institute, with 24 pupils; a hospital for men and one for women, separate buildings; 60 beds in the men's hospital and 24 in the other. Each year there are treated about six hundred in patients and total number of treatments all told over eleven thousand. The total expense of this work exclusive of the foreign physician's salary is about $900 for both plants.

There is also a local church with a membership of 150 and in the field in a territory of hundred miles by eighty, with a population of about four millions, total church membership of 2,500.

The work is carried on by seven foreigners and 65 native helpers, the latter including those engaged in religious and educational work and helpers in the hospital.

Connected with the work is a flourishing Sunday school and a street chapel in the city, where papers may be read and entertainments given. This is crowded every time for either gospel services or talks on general subjects.

The force from home consists of Dr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Lyon, the former in charge of the two hospitals and the latter in charge of the girls' high school and assistant in the hospital; Rev. T. N. Thompson, pastor of the local church and general oversight of the evangelistic work in the

POINTS IN REGARD TO BREAD MAKING

DIFFERENCE IN GRADES OF FLOUR WHICH HOUSEWIVES SHOULD KNOW.

Woman who Bakes Should Understand Meaning and Use of Terms, Feel, Color, Gluten and Strength of Flour and Their Influence Upon Bread Making.

(By Isabel Bevier, Department of Household Science, U. of I.)

The Feel of Flour.

The woman who handles flour readily distinguishes this difference in feel, but she does not learn to interpret this difference in terms of bread recipe—that is, she does not understand that the granular one will take up more water, or to put it another way, that spring wheat flour will require less flour to a given quantity of liquid than a winter wheat flour. She does not understand that the manufacturer's claim that

Empty each upon a separate square of cheese cloth, place over a colander or strainer and wash under running water. The starch will go through the cheese cloth and the threads of gluten will remain on the cloth. When the water goes through clear, presumably all the starch has been washed out and the wet gluten is left. Roll the gluten into a ball and then stretch to show difference in elasticity. Weigh to get difference in wet gluten.

While one experiment is not conclusive, yet by these simple tests one may become familiar with the physical properties of flour and learn to understand the terms, color and feel as applied to flour and their probable influence on the bread made from that flour. One will also understand the difference in gluten, whether it is elastic or not, and can judge something of its ability to expand as a framework for the loaf of bread. This difference between a strong and a weak flour is as important one from the economic standpoint. The strong flour absorbs more water and yields a loaf that weighs more. Flour differs considerably in this respect. In the writer's experience, a pound of flour has yielded in bread from 1.25 to 1.65 pounds. Bakers consider that 1-1/3 pounds of bread from a pound of flour is a fair average yield.

THE PRODUCE OF ONE TON OF MANURE EIGHT YEARS AVERAGE RESULTS.

the housekeeper can save flour by using his variety is based upon just this fact of the difference between spring and winter wheat in this power to absorb water. She needs to know the cost per sack of each variety in her market and the yield in bread of each before she can tell which is really the cheaper for her.

The Color of Flour.

Perhaps next to feel in the understanding of the home baker comes color in flour. Now that bleaching of flour is forbidden by law, one is more likely to find on the market flour of a creamy color. If it is very white or grayish, it indicates that the flour probably is not new, and that it contains a large proportion of starch. Age has a tendency to lessen the color. Moreover, new flour from spring wheat is apt to have more of the creamy color than that made of winter wheat, because of the larger proportion of gluten in the former and the larger proportion of starch in the latter. In any case, a dull gray color does not indicate a good flour for bread making. Neither is it true that a deep cream colored flour will not yield an excellent quality of bread. The world has been slow to learn that whiteness is not necessarily a mark of excellence in quality of bread. Whiteness has sometimes indicated the use of flour bleached either by age or by chemicals.

Terms Used.

It is clear then that it is desirable for the woman who bakes to understand the use and meaning of the terms feel, color, gluten and strength as applied to flour, and their influence upon the bread making process. She can have first hand information in regard to gluten and strength by a very simple experiment.

Take a cup of any two flours which are to be compared, measure the amount of water required to make each of these into a dough of the same consistency. This will give an idea of their power to absorb water. Let these doughs stand for an hour,

CONCERNING STRINGY MILK

Question: I have a cow which appears to be in perfect health, but her milk does not act right. The cream gets stringy; why forms in the bottom of the crock, and it is stringy also. Can you tell me what is wrong with the cow?

Answer: We often get inquiries regarding ropy or stringy milk. A few of these refer to lumps or strings of solid matter in the milk as it is first drawn. These result from disturbances in the cow's udder. Milk in this condition is not normal and should be rejected.

The sliminess in milk causing most complaint does not appear until the milk is eight to twenty-four hours old and is not connected in any way with the health of the cows or what they eat. This sliminess is due to certain bacteria which get into the milk after it is drawn. The upper layer of the milk or cream becomes viscous so that in bad cases it will string from a fork in fine threads a couple of feet long. Such an appearance is certainly unusual and uninviting, but does not indicate anything harmful to the consumer.

The sliminess of the milk is due to the growth of a slightly different kind of bacteria which thrive better at low temperatures than do those which form acid. In milk there is a struggle between the germs causing slime and those causing acid. Where the acid becomes evident the slime disappears.

Many dairymen have the trouble every year, but the outbreaks usually last only a few days. When the trouble continues longer, a thorough scalding of all utensils with which the milk comes in contact usually stops the trouble. Sometimes it is necessary to extend the cleaning to the dairy house and its surroundings.

THE DAIRY COW AN IMPORTANT FACTOR

MUST BE CONSIDERED IN THE AGRICULTURE OF MISSISSIPPI VALLEY.

The Demand for Dairy Cattle Is Increasing More Than Any Other Class of Stock—Increase in Population Is Greater Than Increase in Number of Cows Producing Milk.

(By C. H. Eckles, Professor of Dairy Husbandry, University of Missouri.)

All who understand the history of the development of agriculture in other parts of the world, recognize that the dairy cow must, in the future, be even a more important factor than she has been in the past in the agriculture of the Mississippi valley.

The tendency in this direction is easily recognized at the present time. Within the last few years the demand for dairy cattle has increased more, and has remained stronger, than has the demand for any other class of stock. Not only is the demand for this class of animals growing, but there is a greater shortage taking the country over at the present time. The census figures show that the number of dairy cows per 1,000 inhabitants is less today than it was ten years ago, and at that time the figures showed a decline from the ten years preceding. In other words, the increase in population taking the country as a whole, has been greater than the increase in the number of cows producing milk.

The demand for well bred cattle of the dairy breeds in the Mississippi valley states has been greater than the supply for the last five years. Wherever there is a sufficient number of good dairy cattle of any of the leading breeds, making it worth while for a buyer to come some little distance, there is no trouble in finding a buyer who will be glad to pay from $75 to $125 per head.

It has been reported to me by a man in a position, that within 12 months' time, $15,000 worth of Holstein cattle have been shipped out of Cameron, Mo. Within the past two years, Mr. Gordon of Columbia, Mo., has sold 95 head of high grade Holstein cows, the surplus of his herd at an average of a little over $100 per head. It is reported that over $100,000 worth of dairy cattle were shipped out of a single town in Wisconsin last year. The writer receives an average of two letters every day asking where dairy cattle may be bought.

These scattering figures indicate the great demand for cattle and call attention to the possibility of raising and selling cows for dairy purposes as an important part of the farm income.

While these prices and this demand will undoubtedly fluctuate more or less in the future, we have no grounds from which to expect that there will be any serious decline in the years to come. A considerable part of the milk produced for market comes from herds where no young stock are raised. Although this is a bad practice, and is unfortunate at the same time, it should be taken into account as one of the factors that operates to keep up the price of dairy cows.

The object of this article is to point out the opportunities in the way of breeding pure bred cattle. The reason for presenting the facts given so far, is that without a good demand for grade cattle there can be no good demand for pure bred cattle. The breeder of pure bred cattle bears the same relation to the dairy industry that the breeder of pure seed corn does to the corn growing.

M. E. CONFERENCE SEPTEMBER 9

That there will be some local changes in Methodist pulpits at the annual meeting of the Illinois conference at Shelbyville, September 9 to 15, is a possibility. It is stated that no definite changes have been talked of, however. A preliminary meeting of the bishop and his cabinet will be held in Decatur next Wednesday.

Mr. Eames enjoys fine health and hardly knows what sickness is. His turn of luck will be due two years hence, when he expects to enjoy a year in his native country, where he will find hosts to welcome him. He is happy in his labors and is only glad that he came here to work. His roommate is a genial, whole souled gentleman and makes a pleasant companion, while the two families in the compound are in every way good to the two young men who have no helpmeets of their own.

Rev. Charles Eames of Presbyterian Foreign Missionary Society Doing Good Work in China—Visit to Missionary Schools.

(By S. W. Nichols.)

(Continued from yesterday.) There are through the grove images of lions, effigies of persons and various other things to be found in such a place, but sad to say the whole bears more or less the appearance of dilapidation. It is not in the Chinese make up to keep public buildings and such in order. It has often been remarked that while this is one of the oldest civilizations on the earth, there are no old buildings of a public character, the great wall being about the only exception, it that may be so called. The grove is a lovely spot and the trees in it are fine, but there is no careful attention paid to it and the avenue leading to it shows poorly, though I will say that young trees have recently been planted between the unsightly ones. I was disappointed at not see-

Officers Chosen in Closing Session of Order—Delegates Visit State Institutions.

At the closing sessions Thursday of the twenty-fourth grand convention of the Eureka Grand Chapter, Eastern Star, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Grand Royal Patron—Samuel Kerry, Chicago. Worthing Grand Matron—Mrs. Adella M. Ross, Rockford. Worthing Grand Associate Matron—Mrs. Louisa Mitchell. Grand Associate Matron—L. B. Sheppard. Secretary—Mrs. Carrie Lee Hamilton. Worthing Grand Conductress—Mrs. Mamie Blue. Associate Conductress—Mrs. Josephine Cousins, Decatur. Installation services were held for these officers, conducted by Mr. Hamilton of Springfield. Friday morning the visitors spent the time in sightseeing. They visited the state schools for the blind and deaf, the hospital for the insane, the Colored Odd Fellows' Home and Dr. Kennelbrew's hospital.

WAGON OVERTURNS.

Picnicers at Winchester Have Narrow Escape

Winchester Times: Misses LeCye and Chatt Evans have been entertaining the past week, at a house party, the guests being Misses Florence O'Donnell and Nell Gibbs of Winchester, Winnifred Priest of Jacksonville, Mabel Rauch and Doerle Severns of Astoria and Paul Johnson of Pittsfield.

Wednesday of this week being the last day of the house party Miss Florence O'Donnell entertained eight girls at a slumber party. In the evening the young folks took their supper to Coal Hollow and the old saying that thirteen is an unlucky number was proven true as there were thirteen in the party they being Florence O'Donnell, Bessie and Lizzie Doyle, Margaret Priest, Winnifred Priest, LeCye and Chatt Evans, Mabel Rauch, Harry and Dana O'Donnell, Frank Doyle, Charles Bunch and Clay Evans. On the way home while coming through Coal Hollow the wagon was overturned and the young folks were thrown over an embankment ten feet below. All were caught under the wagon and it was due to the gentleness of the horses that their lives were saved. No one was seriously hurt but all suffered a few bruises and were considerably shaken up. Help was secured and the damages were repaired and all but a few rode home in the wagon so after all the slumber party proved a complete success. This was the grand final to a most enjoyable week.

A PLEASANT EXPERIENCE.

The fact that the new principal, Mr. Collins, of the high school was succeeded by Prof. Frank H. Hall brings to mind a pleasant anecdote of that eminent gentleman.

He was serving the Waukegan schools at $2,300 a year and had contracted for another year after which a different city board offered him $2,800. He told the people of Waukegan that he was as good as his word and didn't ask more though the board thought he should have what he could get elsewhere. He attended a meeting of the members and the matter was discussed but while they expressed a willingness to increase his salary he felt unwilling to receive it. Finally the following business was transacted a member moved that Mr. Hall be employed as superintendent of the city schools at salary of $2,300. Carried.

Mr. Chairman, I move that Mr. Hall be employed as head of the high school at a salary of $500 a year. Mr. Hall: you can be excused.

RETURNS FROM COLORADO.

W. I. Tilton returned yesterday from a three weeks' stay in the Pike's Peak region of Colorado. With Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Fawcner, of Cairo, he spent a most delightful time in that playground of the world. Mr. Fawcner secured over a hundred attractive views of the region which will make a valued souvenir of the trip. While in Denver they saw the Knights Templar parade and say that the Jacksonville Temple made a fine appearance in what was perhaps the grandest parade of the kind this country ever saw.

HOLD GOOD ROADS MEETING.

The Jacksonville-Meredosia Good Roads association held a very successful meeting Friday evening in Chapin. The meeting was announced for the town hall, but was held out of doors near the hall on account of the excessive heat. The speakers of the evening were John W. Cleary of this city and A. L. French of Chapin. A large attendance was present and a number were taken into the association.

WILL ARRIVE HOME FROM EAST

Miss Lorena Webber, who with Mrs. J. W. Hairgrove has been enjoying a vacation in North Thetford, Vt., is expected to arrive in the city today. It will probably be a few days longer before Mrs. Hairgrove is again at home. Besides a pleasant outing in North Thetford and vicinity, the ladies visited a number of other points of scenic interest in the east.

STEADY PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR ACTIVE FALL BUSINESS.

Conservation is accentuated by Damage to Corn Yet Crop Conditions Are Still Promising and With Remunerative Prices Prevailing.

New York, Aug. 15.—Dupn's Review tomorrow will say:

Current distribution of merchandise continues in normal volume while steady preparations are being made for an active fall and winter business. Conservation has been accentuated somewhat by damage to corn, yet in a broad sense, crop conditions are still promising and with remunerative prices prevailing, another prosperous year is assured. The heavy movement of agricultural products to market contributes liberally to transportation revenues, while the exports of grain and other commodities add materially to credit balance abroad. Domestic monetary considerations have become a matter of concern and political developments in Europe also make for an easier situation there. Changes in strictly mercantile and industrial conditions are of a mixed character with favorable features predominating.

Bradstreet's Report.

New York, Aug. 15.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Trade trends continue rather mixed but on the whole movements are onward chiefly because of the approach of the fall season. House sales have improved at most leading markets while road business has held its own and sentiment as to distribution during the fall and winter is quite optimistic.

The situation in the southwest is somewhat spotted as the result of drought and heat damage to the corn crop. There is more activity in textiles at New York and even though most sections still are quiet, views as to the future certainly are more cheerful, thanks to the excellent prospects for a large cotton crop.

The stock market has furnished more activity than for some time past, though prices have acted on realizing and concern about the corn crop.

Business failures for the week ending August 14th were 272.

BANK CLEARINGS.

New York, Aug. 15.—Bradstreet's bank clearings report for the week ending August 14th, shows an aggregate of $2,750,838,000 as against $2,995,905,000 last week and $2,935,187,000 in the corresponding week last year.

GAVE RECEPTION TO NEW SALEM SCHOOL TEACHER.

Many Attend Event in Honor of W. Bertram—Address of Welcome by the Pastor.

A reception was given at the Salem Lutheran school on East College street at 8 o'clock Friday evening in honor of W. Bertram, the new teacher of the school, who had arrived in the city at 5 o'clock the same evening. A large number of the patrons of the school and members of the Salem congregation were present to welcome the new teacher and express their best wishes for his success. The Rev. J. G. Kuppler of Salem Evangelical Lutheran church welcomed Mr. Bertram in a well prepared address in which he touched upon the work of the various teachers and school. Mr. Bertram responded in a very happy manner to the pastor's address, after which the company were entertained by music and social conversation. Mr. Bertram will be formally installed Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. Kuppler at the regular hour of the morning service.

Rev. Mr. Kuppler spoke of the efficient and honorable record of the school during its existence of more than half a century. He told of the school under the management of the early pastors of the arrival of Mr. Burfield, the first teacher in 1867, of the three years' service of H. Knaak, and of the long term of work of Mr. Wallis, tracing the history of the institution down to the coming of K. J. Bruening in 1904 and the end of his work in December, 1912.

OIL IN MACOUPIN COUNTY.

Now comes word of new oil finds in the vicinity of Carlville, Macoupin county. Some time ago since the business was quite active there and then it quieted down and now has started up again. A new well on the Rhodes farm has been struck and the company is feeling very complacent over it and hopes to find more and make much money out of the enterprise.

UNION BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES.

Sunday—Sunday school, 10 a. m. Preaching services 11 a. m., and 7:45 p. m. Morning subject, "Paul's Charge to the Ephesian Elders." An invitation is extended to every friend of Union Baptist church to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Carter and twin sons of Atlanta, Ga., are in the city for a couple of weeks. They are the guests of Mrs. Carter's father, J. A. Clark, of 335 East Michigan avenue.

STORE CHANGES HANDS AFTER TWENTY YEARS

Messrs. Mullenix and Hamilton Purchase Ehnie Confectionery, as Announced in Friday's Journal.

As was mentioned in yesterday's Journal, W. S. Ehnie & Bro. have sold their retail confectionery store on East State street to Messrs. Robert Mullenix and Lloyd Hamilton, who took possession Friday noon. For over twenty years the Messrs. Ehnie have conducted the store and in that length of time it has steadily grown until the name of Ehnie has become a household word for all that's good in the confectionery line. During the past few years the Ehnie brothers have realized that their wholesale business has increased to so large proportions that it has demanded all their time.

Messrs. Mullenix and Hamilton are well known young men of the city and have had much experience in this line of work. Mr. Hamilton has been employed by the firm for six years and Mr. Mullenix for two years. Their knowledge will be the basis for a continuance of the popular reputation of the well known establishment. They still expect to handle Ehnie's ice cream and conduct the store on the same line as heretofore, and their many friends will wish them every success.

WATER FOR THE CITY.

It is gratifying to know that the Widenham-Daub wells are proving a great blessing at present in supplying the city with good water which is such a desideratum. For a day or two little or no water has been taken from the lake and the wells on the premises mentioned are holding out all right and it is the hope of all that they will prove amply sufficient during the fearfully dry weather which were are now experiencing.

DENTISTS' BEWARE.

Thieves have recently been at work in Springfield robbing the offices of dentists. These gentlemen have gold about their places and this is attractive to the light fingered thief who may select some other field for their operations later on. Dr. Darmer of Springfield lost about $20 worth of gold and Dr. Baldwin about $4 worth.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

Funeral services for William Edward O'Leary will be held at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd O'Leary, 226 East Wolcott street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. H. H. DeWitt. Interment will be made in Jacksonville cemetery.
